Travel Insurance

A typical off the shelf package is normally fine, just check it covers the Occupied Palestinian Territories and that you are covered for hiking.

Can I have a single room?

- Single rooms are not available during this trip once starting the walking trail.
- There may be the opportunity to have a single room at some of the accommodation at the start and end of the trip. This will incur an additional charge. Please indicate on the booking form if you would like a single room if and when they are available.

What are the Group flight details?

Specific information about flight times and departure points will be available a bit nearer the start date of the trip.

Can I arrange my own flights to arrive early, stay later or travel from/to a different airport?

Yes.

If you choose to do this:

- You need to confirm this on the booking form.
- The cost of joining the trip will be £1,200.
- We will confirm a date, time and location for you to meet the group.
- We cannot help you make any arrangements outside of the group itinerary and you will be responsible for all of your costs prior to joining and after leaving the group.

What will the accommodation be like?

We will be staying in guest houses, homestays, small villages, Bedouin camps and hotels.

And the food?

- There will be loads of great food and amazing hospitality.
- We would recommend you bring some cereal bars or similar to keep your energy up when you are walking.

Can I drink the water?

- Though the water in The West Bank and Israel is generally safe, we would strongly recommend that you stick to bottled water to avoid “traveller’s tummy”, especially in rural areas.
- It would be wise to bring some anti-bacterial hand wash for use before and after meals.

Do I need any inoculations?

No

Do I need a visa?

- British nationals can visit Israel for up to 3 months without applying for a visa in advance.
- Your passport needs to have an expiry date at least 6 months after the start date of the trip.
- You will be issued with a small printed entry visa by the Israeli Immigration authorities on entry at Tel Aviv. Make sure you keep this in your passport for the duration of the trip. Your passport will not be stamped on entry.
- If you do not have a UK passport, you will need to check the visa arrangements to enter Israel for passport holders of your nationality.

Why does the booking form ask what stamps I have in my passport?

- There are a few countries that are likely to raise questions from the Israeli Immigration authorities if your passport shows you have visited them. We will contact you if we think the countries you have visited will raise any questions.
- If you have visited Iran, you will need to obtain a second passport to visit Israel.

What will the weather be like?

- The daytime temperature in October is normally around the mid 20’s but can vary and there may be occasional rain (the rainy season starts in November).
- You may need waterproofs when you are walking.
- Make sure you bring a hat and plenty of high factor sun screen.
- You will also need to drink plenty of water. Bottled water is widely available to buy.
- The evenings can be cool so you will need to bring a jacket or jumper.

What currency do I need to bring? And how much?

- The currency used in the West Bank is the Israeli Shekel.
- It is best to purchase your Shekels before the trip as time is limited once the trip starts.
- You will need enough money to cover one or two lunches (approx. £10 per lunch) during the trip plus your own beverages, alcohol and bottled water and any souvenirs you wish to purchase.
- There are cash machines available but be aware of conversion charges.

Will there be wifi?

Wifi will probably not be available during the walk.

Mobile phone usage

- Please check the costs of calls, texts and data usage in Israel with your mobile phone provider before the trip. Coverage from Israeli providers is available across almost all of the West Bank.
- Ensure you know how to avoid unwanted roaming charges by adjusting your phone settings.

Will it be safe?

- The safety and wellbeing of our groups is always Amos Trust's number one priority.
- Amos has been taking groups to the Holy Land for more than 20 years and we have deep friendships and high levels of trust with our local guides and partners..
- We will be welcomed with incredible hospitality which is both a beautiful cultural norm and a response to how we choose to locate and shape our visits.
- Should there be a major deterioration in the local or regional security situation we will take careful guidance from our local partners and the UK FCO travel advice before proceeding with the trip.

How fit do I need to be?

- Palestine is a hilly place and each day will involve walking around 25km using stony and uneven tracks.
- We would suggest you give us a call if you have concerns over your physical fitness to join the trip.
- You can find out a bit more about the planned route here.

Are there cultural norms or expectations I should be aware of?

- We will be staying in a fairly conservative Arab society so you should generally dress modestly.
- Women should avoid strappy or low cut tops and short skirts/shorts; men should stick to long trousers or shorts that come down well past the knees.
- We will be visiting local families and groups as well as churches, mosques and synagogues.
- Some of the religious places will insist on shoulders and knees being covered.
- If it is required for heads to be covered, suitable coverings are normally offered by the places of worship concerned.
- Alcohol is available in some restaurants and cafes within the larger cities.
- Whilst it is fine to drink in these environments, it is not acceptable to drink outside of the places serving alcohol or to excess.

Shall I bring gifts?

Do not bring gifts. The reasoning for this is that it isn't fair if some get and some don't. We've seen gifts given to some, but not all, provoke bullying and minor violence among children.

Climate Justice and flights

- We are keenly aware of the dilemma of campaigning for climate justice whilst flying groups of supporters around the world to visit our partners.
- Our environmental impact statement outlines our considered response to this dilemma and confirms our commitment to donate 5% of the total amount that Amos Trust spends on flights each year to our climate justice work in Nicaragua. This meets the bulk of our offsetting costs over the course of a year.
- Myclimate.org calculates the carbon cost of return flights from London Heathrow for this trip to be 1.4t of CO2 per person for the 7,200km round trip. The offset cost for this is approximately £30.
- The confirmation email you receive when you have submitted your booking form will contain a link to a payment page for you to make a donation towards the carbon offsetting costs of your flights.
 - A £15 donation would match Amos Trust's 5% donation.
 - A £30 donation would fully offset the carbon for your flights.

Consent for photography/filming

Amos Trust is a creative organisation and we love telling stories. One of the ways we do this is through photography and film. There may be a designated Amos photographer and/or filmmaker on your trip to help us 'tell the story', so that we can share it with other Amos supporters and new audiences across Amos' print and digital media, including print publications (such as our 'Words of Hope' newspaper), websites, e-marketing, posters, banners, advertising, film, and social media channels.

By confirming that you have read and understood the essential information for this trip:

- You consent to Amos Trust using photographs and/or video recordings, including images of you, to promote our work.
- You understand that images on websites can be viewed throughout the world and not just in the United Kingdom and that some overseas countries may not provide the same level of protection to the rights of individuals as UK legislation provides.
- You understand that some images or recordings may be kept permanently once they are published and be kept as an archive of Amos Trust.

Your rights

If you feel uncomfortable being photographed or filmed while on your trip, please inform the photographer and/or filmmaker and they will happily stop photographing/filming you. If you prefer, simply ask your trip leader to ask the photographer and/or filmmaker on your behalf.

You can ask Amos Trust to stop using any images that you appear in at any time, in which case it will not be used in future publications but may continue to appear in publications already in circulation.
