GIFTS FROM AMOS TRUST

GIVE A LITTLE BIT OF AMOS THIS CHRISTMAS

This year we've extended our range of gifts and stocking-fillers to include face masks direct from Palestine and our new book of creative writing, 'Seeds of Hope'.

We are delighted that artists Cat Phillipps and Peter Kennard have given us permission to use their wonderful 'Christmas Glitter Wrecking Ball' image for our Christmas cards this year.

We also have aprons and shopper bags and for the first time, we've introduced three 'digital gifts' for those hard-to-buy-for friends and relatives in your life.

These include waters filters for rural communities in Nicaragua, period packs for girls on the streets of South Africa and Christmas party play sessions for children from Bethlehem's refugee camps.

All profits will go to our Christmas Appeal for children and young people in Palestine. Please visit our website at amostrust.org/christmas-appeal for more details.

A Merry Christmas from all of us at Amos Trust.

SEEDS OF HOPE

£10

What a wonderful collection of writing — rich, deep, broad, funny, touching, angry, and, most importantly, encouraging.

BRIAN ENO — PRODUCER, MUSICIAN, WRITER AND ARTIST

Our second book of poetry, prose, creative writing and reflection is now available. 'SEEDS OF HOPE: MORE THOUGHTS AND REFLECTIONS FROM AMOS TRUST', has contributions from Zena Kazeme, Arundhati Roy, Ben Okri, Cornel West, Angela Davis, Robert Cohen, Maya Angelou and our partner Abdelfattah Abusour.

In March 2020, as coronavirus forced the world into lockdown, we began to post daily 'Seeds of Hope' on our Facebook and Instagram pages. The thoughts, reflections and poems in the book are largely drawn from these posts.

We have also included stories from our partners around the world and playlists of the songs that have accompanied us in and out of lockdown. Broken down into chapters including Her, Home, Planet, Solidarity and Walk — SEEDS OF HOPE has something for everyone.

FACE MASKS FROM PALESTINE

£7.50 EACH OR £6.75 IF YOU BUY THREE OR MORE

By purchasing one of these Palestinian masks, you are protecting yourself and others, you are supporting the Keffiyeh industry in Palestine and Holy Land Trust in Bethlehem. Please help promote our culture in your own communities.

ELIAS D'EIS — DIRECTOR, HOLY LAND TRUST

The KEFFIYEHS used for these face masks come direct from a textile factory in Bethlehem. Our friends at HOLY LAND TRUST have taken the traditional Palestinian patterned scarf and formed it into modern protection against the global virus.

The masks are made from soft, breathable cotton that keeps moisture away from the face. The traditional keffiyeh is black and white and these designs have been given a colourful twist to celebrate this iconic Palestinian pattern.

WORDS OF HOPE

£5 — SPECIAL DISCOUNTED PRICE

These writings reflect the laughter, joy, and friendship we experience and all those times when we see the very best sides of our human nature.

CHRIS ROSE — DIRECTOR, AMOS TRUST

Our first collection of creative writing and liturgy is still available — ‘WORDS OF HOPE: THOUGHTS AND REFLECTIONS FROM AMOS TRUST’. Over Amos’ 30 years we have produced numerous songs, books, films, poems, and prayers — those moments when we step back and try to convey the essence of our partners’ work and the situations they face.

The writing in this book has been inspired by them and is our response to their creativity. Through it, we seek to explore fresh ways of understanding and to grapple with the pain and despair of their situation and the enormity of the challenges we face as a small, creative human rights organisation.

Featuring words from Amos Founder Garth Hewitt, Mahmoud Darwish, Michael Leunig, Taha Muhammad Ali, Archbishop Oscar Romero, Archbishop Desmond Tutu, Canon Lucy Winkett and writer and broadcaster Martin Wroe.
