GIFTS FROM AMOS TRUST

GIVE A LITTLE BIT OF AMOS THIS CHRISTMAS

New to the Amos Trust Christmas Gift Shop for 2022 are some beautiful hand-painted CHRISTMAS BAUBLES direct from India, and unique 'ON LOCATION' coffee table art catalogues featuring the best visual art from Gaza.

Our new 'THAT'S HOW THE LIGHT GETS IN' Christmas cards feature a photograph of a piece of BANKSY graffiti taken near The Walled Off Hotel in Bethlehem. We also have Advent candles and some great organic cotton aprons and shopper bags.

We've added three new digital gifts to the range for those hard-to-buy-for friends and relatives in your life — leadership training sessions for girls from India's pavement-dwelling communities, breast cancer screening for women in Gaza and tree planting for wherever it's needed most.

When the shepherds are back with their flocks.

CHRISTMAS BAUBLES FROM INDIA

SMALL: £3 EACH OR £5 FOR TWO

LARGE: £4 EACH OR £10 FOR THREE

However tangled the lights are this year,
I know you'll handle it with aplomb.
Merry Christmas!

MAYA ANGELOU

The original Christmas bauble comes from sixteenth-century Germany in the alpine town of Lauscha, well-known for its skill in glass-blowing and Christmas ornament production.

These beautiful, hand-painted Indian Christmas Baubles are made from smooth papier-mâché and will look perfect on any tree and will almost certainly be more durable than the original sixteenth-century versions!

SEEDS OF HOPE

£10

What a wonderful collection of writing — rich, deep, broad, funny, touching, angry, and, most importantly, encouraging.

BRIAN ENO — PRODUCER, MUSICIAN, WRITER AND ARTIST

Our second book of poetry, prose, creative writing and reflection is now available. 'SEEDS OF HOPE: MORE THOUGHTS AND REFLECTIONS FROM AMOS TRUST' has contributions from Zena Kazeme, Arundhati Roy, Ben Okri, Cornel West, Angela Davis, Robert Cohen, Maya Angelou and our partner Abdelfattah Abusour.

In March 2020, as coronavirus forced the world into lockdown, we began to post daily 'Seeds of Hope' on our Facebook and Instagram pages. The thoughts, reflections and poems in the book are drawn mainly from these posts.

We have also included stories from our partners around the world and playlists of the songs that have accompanied us in and out of lockdown. Broken down into chapters including Her, Home, Planet, Solidarity and Walk, SEEDS OF HOPE has something for everyone.

KEFFIYEHS FROM BETHLEHEM

£20

The metaphor for Palestine is stronger than the Palestine of reality.

MAHMOUD DARWISH

The Keffiyeh is a traditional Middle Eastern headdress fashioned from a square scarf commonly found in arid regions, as it protects against sunburn, dust and sand.

Traditionally worn by Palestinian farmers, the Keffiyeh became a symbol of Palestinian nationalism during the Arab Revolt of the 1930s. Its prominence increased during the 1960s with the beginning of the Palestinian resistance movement.

The Keffiyeh can be worn in a semi-traditional way, wrapped around the head or as a scarf. It can also be dropped over one shoulder only, arranging it in the rough shape of a triangle to resemble the outline of historic Palestine.

Outside of the Middle East and North Africa, the Keffiyeh first gained popularity among activists supporting the Palestinians in the conflict with Israel. The Keffiyeh's here are modelled by our friends Fleur and Jonah.

GRANDMA'S BIRD BY MALAK MATTAR

£15

Grandma's Bird escaped from its cage when her house was invaded during the 2014 attack on Gaza. In my book, written and illustrated when I was 14, it becomes the hope.

MALAK MATTAR

Grandma's Bird is a limited edition children's picture book, illustrated and written (in simple English and Arabic) by Palestinian artist Malak Mattar.

Reflecting Malak's childhood experiences in Palestine, 'Grandma's Bird' tells the story of her beginnings as an artist during the 2014 airstrikes on Gaza.
